Additional Council Bluffs news on Eighth page.

The city council will meet to-morrow night.

Dr. Pinney is making some marked improvements in his residence property.

Permit to dredge was yesterday given to John M. Jurgens and Augusta Hansen, both of this city.

The Chautauque circle will meet to-morrow evening at the music hall. A very interesting programme has been arranged.

Myron McLaughlin, an ancient vag, was the only boarder at the city jail who answered the breakfast bell yesterday morning.

Marble Head line at Council Bluffs Lumber company's, 900 Main street. Telephone No.
222.

Ninth avenue is soon to have a bridge across Indian creek. The matter is now receiving considerable attention, and it is said some bids have already been received.

Street Commissioner Avery is doing some much needed work on Broadway in removing the heavy coating of mud, and the result is very much appreciated by both passengers and pedestrians.

Next Wednesday the Pacific Mutual telegraph company will move its local office from Broadway to South Main street. The office of J. L. Latta is being remodeled and here will be the new quarters.

The music loving people of Council Bluffs are not required to have a written invitation to attend the musical given by Mrs. Siskion at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. E.
Stubbs, Tuesday evening, May 15. Musical commences promptly at 8 o'clock.

There will be a meeting of the Catholic Young men of Council Bluffs at St. Francis Xavier's church at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.
A large attendance is requested as the purpose of the meeting is to perfect arrangements for a permanent organization.

The pipe has arrived for the intersections of the Lower Broadway water main, and work will be commenced this week, putting it in place. It will all be laid before the pavers get along so that the block laying will not be delayed or in any way interfered with.

The Reflector's society editor made a mistake in giving Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Stubbs the credit for a musicale at their residence last week. No such event occurred at their home. The mistake arose, perhaps, from the fact that Mrs. Siskion, assisted by Mr. Nat Brigham and Mrs. Wadsworth, will give a parlor concert there on Tuesday evening of this week.

Yesterday afternoon a farmer by the name of C. G. Nash met with a double misfortune.
He got beasted drunk; went into a Broadway store; was ordered out but couldn't go; was helped out and struck upon the sidewalk front end up. His face was badly cut and bruised, and when the damage was partly repaired with plasters, etc., he was quite sober.
It was some days before Nash is as good as a man as he was before his mishap.

During past years the Baptist church in this city has had somewhat of a struggle in establishing itself, and in its maintenance has been assisted by the Home Mission society of that church. At its last meeting the financial ability of its membership was canvassed, and it was resolved that the church was self-sustaining, and the mission society was so notified. The organization is to be congratulated for its power and usefulness as thus augmented.

Max Mohn was very warm about the collar yesterday when he learned that parties were reporting that he had been the cause of the sheriff closing the saloon which recently started up at 215 Main street, adjacent to his property. He says that it is enough for him to run the Creston house without spending his time interfering with the business of other people. It seems that there was no need of Max Mohn, or anyone else, going out of their way to inform the authorities that a saloon was running there, for the front of the building was covered with signs informing the public that drinks of various kinds could be obtained within.

The new saloon recently opened next to the Creston house on Main street, was nicely fitted up and defiantly flung out its sign that it would serve the thirsty ones despite the prohibition law. It was understood that Mr.
Haines was the proprietor and an injunction was obtained some time ago against him.
The building, owned by Mr. Ritter, was formerly used as a saloon, but as the result of previous proceedings, the business was closed up. Lately the owner rented it again for "restaurant" purposes, and it is understood that he secured the right to keep it open and free, a bond indemnifying him against any fine or other damage which might result if liquors were sold there. The sheriff has stepped in and closed the place, by order of court, and it remains to be seen what fines or other costs will result.

Personal Paragraphs.

Plumbing company, returned yesterday from southern states before his return.

city yesterday and will make arrangements mons hardware company of St. Louis, and LIFE IN THE BUSY BLUFFS.

Sharp Buyers Purchase Many Lots in Omaha Addition.

THE PARK IMPROVEMENTS.
The Church Invitations Issued Today—Women Quarrel Over Their Clothes—Saloons Suggest Compromise—No Base Ball.

A Big Land Deal.
Yesterday the sale of 100 lots in Omaha addition to Council Bluffs was consummated through the agency of C. J. Colby, and the property was divided up among the several purchasers. Among the buyers are J. T.
Stewart, George F. Wright, E. A. Benson, Guy Barton, F. O. Gleason, D. M. Howes, Max Mohn and others. The aggregate consideration was $105,000. The purchasers are all men of means, and some of them residents of Omaha, who have not until now been investors in Council Bluffs property. This is far the largest deal that has been made in months, and it augurs well for the business of the year, which is just opening.

The City Parks.
The park commissioners are making arrangements for extensive improvements in this class of the city's property during the coming season. Bayliss park, one of the most beautiful spots of its size to be found in the country, comes in for its share. The walks are to be paved with artificial stone, made of crushed white granite, instead of marble, so as to give it the appearance of marble. A six inch border of terra cotta will give them a neat and finished appearance.
The band stand that now occupies a position in the center of the park, will be removed, and a handsome $1,000 fountain substituted in its place. The band stand will probably be removed to the driving park. The commissioners object to leaving it where it is, as it is badly out of repair and the cost of fixing it up would exceed its value. The fountain will be surrounded by an electric light that will illuminate the whole park.
The lights on the court house answered this purpose while the leaves were off, but the dense foliage now renders the spot quite dark and additional light desirable. The benches were placed in position yesterday and they were occupied during the greater part of the day. There are about thirty of them and more would be purchased if it was not feared that the result would be the complete extermination of the grass.

The park was carefully sprinkled all through the dry weather of last season and the plan will be repeated this season if necessary. The new walks will cost about $1,500 and the other improvements will amount to considerable more. But the work is by no means to be confined to this park. Work at Furnace has already begun. An artificial lake is to be constructed in the center of the park and numerous artificial springs will be placed at various points, insuring plenty of water. The water supply is being provided for by Harry Birkinbine, manager of the waterworks company. This gentleman has furnished an engine of three horsepower, and a six horsepower boiler to be placed on the bank at the Glen avenue reservoir, which will force the water to a large tank in the park, from which it will be distributed as needed. The engine will be run by the gentleman at the reservoir, so the expense will not amount to much. Walks and drives will be laid out and considerable grading done to put this enjoyable spot in suitable condition.

The city engineer was busy yesterday at Prospect park, the attractive little plot of city ground on Harrison street, establishing the corners so that a fence can be erected and other work done preparatory to setting out trees and seeding the piece another season.

At the Big Lake park considerable work is also being done.

The city council has ordered the Driving Park association to vacate Cherry street, so as to give the city a right-of-way to this property, and parties owning land near the lake have offered a right-of-way across their tracts. This piece of the city's possessions comprises about four hundred acres, and is to be fitted up for picnic grounds. The lake has been dammed up and makes a splendid fishing ground. A special policeman guards the property, and has instructions to allow no one fishing in the lake and to keep all intoxicated persons away from there. No parties will be allowed to visit the grounds with loaded bottles and bowl up for a day's orgies, as the place is intended to be kept in a condition for ladies' and children's picnic parties without fear of interruption. Island park, with its 107 acres of land, is also included in the list of city parks, and no work is contemplated there this season, it can be made one of the most delightful spots that the city owns. It is a lovely spot, and some of the city now measuring seventeen feet in circumference, and soft maples fourteen feet. It will not require a great outlay of money to bring it into shape, and the others. Commissioners Graham, Perego, and Brown are devoting a great deal of time and attention to the matter, and it is expected that they will meet with a hearty second by the citizens.

A Saloon Compromise.

The demand for the saloon men to pay the city $50 a month, as a sort of license, under a prohibition state law, does not strike the dealers in drink very favorably. As a sort of compromise a number of them have proposed to pay the city $25 a month, instead of $50, feeling that while no real protection can be offered by the city, yet it would be worth this amount to have the city just keep still, and not fight them. It is proposed that they oblige themselves in a written document to pay the $25 each month promptly, and to obey the other requirements about closing at midnight and on Sundays. Whether the compromise will be accepted by Mayor Rohrer is not known, but the rule will be it is better to take it, than to be compelled to go into a fight and get nothing.

The saloons justify their naming of $25 on the ground that they pay the city $25 a month for looking after the cases in court, and with the city's $25 they would then be paying $50 a month, which is as heavy a tax as the business will warrant as now being conducted, and with the chances of being fined $500 or $1,000 for contempt of court at any time.

A Missing Nine.
The C. E. Mayne ball club, of Omaha, failed to appear on the grounds for the schedule game that was to have been played yesterday afternoon, and the Bluffs team claimed the game by a score of 9 to 0. The attendance was much larger than the week before, and the management refunded the money received at the gate, or a refund for to-day's game and one street car fare. Today's game is with the J. J. Hardins, and will be played sure. Much disappointment was expressed because the game was not played, and the Mayne's came in for a large amount of severe censure for sending no notice of their absence.
